

Antonio Alonso- Concheiro

México; Prospective

Biography

Born in México City in 1949. BSc in Mechanical and Electrical Engineering (National Autonomous University of México); PhD in Control Engineering (Imperial College of Science and Technology, London). Was subdirector of the Institute of Engineering (National Autonomous University of Mexico), and director of Fundación Javier Barros Sierra (independent Mexican Futures Studies think tank); now chairman of the Board. Fellow member and Chairman of the Iberoam Chapter, World Futures Studies Federation. Member of the Mexican Chapter of Club of Rome and of the Mexican Chapter of World Future Society. Member and secretary of the Prospective Committee, Academy of Engineering. Member of the Editorial Board of World Future Review, Journal of Futures Studies, and Science and Technology Editorial Board of Fondo de Cultura Económica. Co-founder and Senior consultant (in charge of strategic planning and futures studies) of Analitica Consultores (Mexican consulting firm).

Main works

Books (in Spanish):

Futures of the National System of Science and Technology; Mexico's Prospective 2030 Vision (2010; National Council of Science and Technology).

Health Futures in Mexico 2050 (2010; General Health Council, México)

Eleonora Barbieri Masini: Soul of Futures Studies (2013; eds. with Javier Medina Vásquez)

Futures of Medical Specialties (2015; National Academy of Medicine)

Papers:

"Thinking Futures", World Future Review, 2015, Vol. 7(4) 332-341.

"Mexican youngs and children: Futures visions" (in Spanish), Revista de Estudios de Juventud (INJUVE, Spain), March 2014, 104, 57-71..